

2010 Eventing Queensland Junior Squad NOMINATION FORM

Nominations Closing Date: 20th Feb 2010

I wish to nominate for the Eventing Queensland Junior Squads for 2010 and agree to abide by the decisions of the Committee, Coach and guidelines issued. I agree to attend the minimum number of training days throughout the year.

Being a member of the EQ Discipline squad means that squads are often on display to a large number of people include representatives of our sponsors, official partners and key stakeholders. As the EQ is proud of its squads and squad members, it would like all those involved to be seen in the best possible light. Should your behavior conflict with the standard Code of Conduct below or should you be the subject to disciplinary action, you may be removed immediately from the squad.

In order to know what standard of behavior is expected from squad members, below please find a Code of Conduct to assist squad members.

CODE OF CONDUCT SQUAD MEMBERS

- Ensure that the actions and activities of both yourself and others are in accordance with all rules and regulations.
- Conduct activities in a manner which is safe for other people as well as yourself.
- Wear an approved, securely fastened, helmet at all times while riding.
- Have consideration for your horse. This includes not only feeding, watering and washing down but also the use of spurs, whip and reins.
- Attend squad training days. This is compulsory.
- Attend seminars and general talks provided by guest speakers.
- Be courteous to your coaches and guest speakers.
- Regularly thank sponsors.
- Ensure uniforms are worn at all times and maintain a neat appearance.
- Observe all rules and guidelines of training and competition venues and be mindful and considerate to fellow riders.
- All riders have a legal and moral responsibility to treat each other fairly, and are expected to fulfill these responsibilities as a condition of being a member of an EFAQ squad. Bullying and discrimination will not be tolerated.

JUNIOR SQUAD CONDITIONS

Please note: Riders who do not return the signed conditions will not be eligible for squad.

1. I am a current financial member of the Equestrian Australia
2. My horse is registered with the Equestrian Australia.
3. I will endeavor to show good sportsmanship and team spirit at all times.
4. As a representative of a Eventing Queensland Junior Squad I am also an ambassador for Queensland and our sponsors and in doing so I will conduct myself in a positive and professional manner at all times.
5. I agree to attend regular squad training days. If I am unable to attend a training day, I will submit a letter to the Squad Coordinator explaining why I was unable to attend.
6. When approached by a member of an EQ Sub-Committee or a member of any other Club to assist at competitions, my help will be recorded as an asset to the Junior Squad. (This is so you can benefit from experiencing the administration side of Disciplines).
7. You must possess an Equestrian Australia Rule Book. These can be downloaded from the Equestrian Australia site. This must be sited at the first training day of the year.
8. I acknowledge that the Squad Coaches are not to be expected to provide coaching at competitions. They MAY do so, subject to their own competition requirements.
9. I am aware that ALL communications regarding Squad issues MUST be referred to the Squad Co-Ordinator, not directly to the coach. (Remember that you may not always have the same coach.)
10. If selected to represent Queensland in a State Team, it is compulsory to attend team meetings and team course walks. While it is understood that riders may have their own coach with them at the competition, team course walk is with team Coach only. Any subsidy for team members will be provided after the event and will be dependent on these criteria being met.
11. Failure to abide by these requirements will result in removal from the Squad/Team, Reselection will be at the Eventing Queensland Committee's discretion.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Selection for the Junior Squad is performance based and is via application. A rider is a Junior until the end of the year they turn 18. Performances for the competition year of 2009 are used to decide on selection. Results need to be qualifying results in order to be considered. Results are weighted according to the type of competition and are categorized as follows:

1. CCI 2 star
2. CIC 2 Star
3. CNC 2 Star
4. CCI 1 Star
5. CIC 1 Star
6. CNC 1 Star
7. Prenovice

Results need to be qualifying results in order to be considered and will be weighted according to placings.
