

Liz Coe

Liz Coe is not only a judge but she has experience in training and competing horses to FEI and coaching. Here are some information about Liz that you will find interesting:

JUDGE HISTORY

- 'A' level Grand Prix Dressage Judge/Mentor and Judge Educator and have just become a Para Equestrian dressage judge in 2011
- I have over 27 years experience as a dressage judge.
- I have judged at all levels including: - local club days, ODE (* &), Regional 2* championships in QLD and NSW plus State and National Championships.
- Judged at CDI + International Competitions, the most recent being the 2012 North Island Dressage Championships in New Zealand
- Member of QLD dressage sub-committee

RIDING HISTORY

- Have successfully trained and competed several horses from breaking in to FEI Intermediate I in both official and unofficial dressage competitions for over 30 years before from retiring from competitive riding while studying. I began my dressage career in Townsville then South Australia, South Eastern QLD with a number of sorties into NSW.
- Owned and trained Anglo Arab mare Aragon Park Idle Gossip from breaking in to FEI Intermediate I competing her through the ranks to wins and placings at both State and National competitions
- QLD State Dressage Squad Member on Aragon Park Idle Gossip for 1995-1996
- Aragon Park Idle Gossip went on to be the winner of the Benalbyn Lodge Medium/Advanced Horse of the Year in Queensland 1996
- The mare was then sold to a young rider who was riding at elementary and the mare then took the rider onto the Young Rider Squad and then onto the Queensland State Squad until the mare's retirement

COACHING HISTORY

- I have students of many levels and abilities from Preliminary to Medium level competing with success from local competitions to riders that have been selected for the QLD Young Dressage Squad and National Interschool champions.
- Currently have students winning at Official EA dressage competitions at Medium level (2011)
- I have students who have qualified & successfully competed at the QLD State Dressage Championships since 2007
- I have students who are winners of Freestyle championships at local/Regional and State Championship level

