Just over an hour from the Riding School is the beautiful town of Königswinter. It has one of the most-visited castles on the Rhine, the Drachenfels. It's ruins crown one of the highest hills in the Siebengebirge, Germany's oldest nature reserve, with a spectacular view of the Rhine. The reserve has more than 100 km of hiking trails. The castle was built in the 12th Century by the archbishop of Köln. Its name commemorates a dragon said to have lived in a nearby cave. As legend has it, the dragon was slain by Siegfried, hero of the epic Nibelungenlied. You can reach the castle ruins by taking the Drachenfelsbahn.

There are many stunning restaurants located along the famous Rhine River in Königswinter and this makes the ideal escape for the weekend. Our hotel, the Maritim is located directly on the Rhine and has a great terrace overlooking the river. It also has a fantastic swimming pool to help you relax over the weekend.
